Practice Prosperity by Rev. Dr. Michael Curcuru

Center for Spiritual Living Beaumont kicked off its 2025 Committed Giving Pledge Campaign this past Sunday, October 27th. The 2025 Committed Pledge Campaign continues through Sunday November 24th. The 2025 Committed Pledge Campaign is an open opportunity, for an inclusive invitation for each of us personally, and all of us collectively – to join and celebrate together our growing, evolving, and exponentially thriving at CSLB. At CSLB, as a like-minded Spiritual Community, we “Practice Prosperity.”

“Practice Prosperity” is not just a motto at CSLB. “Practice Prosperity” is our M.O. Our Mindset Opportunity. Our Mindset Opportunity to Practice Prosperity through our beliefs, values, and actions. Our beliefs, values, and actions – that manifest in terms of as we give – so we receive – so we achieve. Our Mindset Opportunity to “Practice Prosperity” is about a shift in our periscope of perception.

A shift from the belief I work hard for the money – to the conscious awareness that as I do what I love the money flows. A shift from the belief in the Law of Supply and Demand – into the conscious awareness of the Law of Divine Source and Infinite Supply. A shift from the belief – that I must tithe in a committed manner - into the conscious awareness – I most joyously tithe to CSLB’s 2025 Committed Giving Pledge Campaign. As I freely tithe to CSLB – the Universe freely tithes abundantly to me.

Our Mindset Opportunity is that of shifting our paradigm of possibility into the awareness that as we personally, and collectively practice prosperity – our beloved CSLB community grows and thrives financially. As our beloved CSLB community grows and thrives – our community members do as well. As our practice of committed giving evolves – our experience of abundance evolves exponentially. Ernest Holmes refers to our experience of abundance evolving as “Good evolving to greater good.”

Henry David Thoreau shares of our good evolving to a greater good in these words, “If one advances confidently in the direction of their dream and endeavors to live the life they are imagining, one passes an invisible boundary. All sorts of things begin to occur the otherwise never would have occurred. One meets with a success unexpected in common hours.” Conscious giving to CSLB’s Committed Giving Pledge Campaign is an opportunity to give, receive, and achieve.

“Practice Prosperity” by generously giving to CSLB’s Committed Giving Pledge Campaign. And watch as you meet in all areas of your life – with a “success unexpected in common hours.” Prosperity is your Divine Right – Divine Inheritance – Divine Legacy. “Practice Prosperity” now. Consciously tithe today.

Blessings Always, Rev. Dr. Michael Curcuru

On behalf of CSLB’s 2025 Committed Giving Pledge Campaign.

VOLUNTEER FOR THE MONTH OF NOVEMBER

Our November volunteer of the month is Sandi Fetterman-Schilling. Sandi and her husband joined us about three years and she became involved very quickly. She was involved in the finances at the CSL she came from and it did not take long before she found herself on the Finance Team, she is a valued member. Last year she headed up our 2024 Pledge campaign. She enjoys taking classes and participates in most events. That is when she and her husband Richard are not traveling the US in their RV. Thank you Sandi for being a valued of our CSLB Family.

Sunshine Grows Here—Cassidy Laughy

While participating in a spiritual study group with the Center for Spiritual Living Beaumont, we were asked to pick something we would nurture and commit to doing for our personal and spiritual growth. Feeling inspired, I chose to journal my gratitude. That has since turned into a blog I named Sunshine Grows. This encompasses gratitude, perspective shifts, travel, and positive merchandise and quotes.

Join me on my gratitude journey and start your own. Check in for ways to change your perspective, or simply choose a quote for the week. Cassidy Laughy

Shared Gratitude

We have been blessed with a donation of sixteen whole turkeys from the Morongo Band of Indians. We would like to pass on fourteen turkeys to our members and friends who currently may have a strained budget and their holiday would be enhanced with the makings for a Thanksgiving dinner. Or you may want to provide a dinner for friends that may not otherwise have a Thanksgiving Meal. There will be a sign up sheet at the Center starting November 10th. If you can not make into the Center you can call the and leave a message at 951-845-6328. Someone will call you back to confirm your reservation. The packaged meals must be picked up on November 18th. The package will include all the main items for a full meal.

The additional two turkeys will be prepared for a Thanksgiving Dinner at the center on Thanksgiving day.

There will be additional information provided.
